

danica da silva pereira

Individual Diverse Global Distinct
Artists who champion good causes

Danica Da Silva Pereira is an illustrator born and bred in the tropical state of Goa, India and currently based in the historical town of Cambridge, UK. After completing her Bachelors in Fine Arts, she worked as a graphic designer and illustrator. Danica has recently graduated with an MA in Children's Book Illustration from Cambridge School of Art, UK. Her work is influenced by documentaries and she is passionate about representing diversity and advocating for environmental causes. She uses mixed media including colour pencil, water colour, acrylics, digital painting and enjoys screen printing. Her favourite recent work is a non-fiction dummy book that she wrote and illustrated called Welcome to Majuli. She is a member of the Association of Illustrators and the Six Bells Collective. Her clients include Penguin Random House and World Vision.

Artists who champion good causes. We work with major progressive brands to communicate their message and align our mutual values by connecting them with diverse, genuine and individual talent.

Artists who champion good causes. We work with major progressive brands to communicate their message and align our mutual values by connecting them with diverse, genuine and individual talent.