Artists who champion good causes

Douglas is a Brazilian visual artist, a dream he always wanted to follow. After graduating from Advertisement at the Federal University of Paraná, he decided to work professionally as an illustrator, in 2017. Since then, Douglas has developed different styles and techniques and has worked on several different projects for books, ads campaigns, animation, comic books and music. Douglas has been shortlisted for the Brasil Design Award for his Forbes cover art. He always illustrates with the purpose of delivering the best art to inspire people and bring the future he wants into reality. He is also a teacher in Revolution School of Digital Art, loves his succulents and his dog.
