Artists who champion good causes

Irene Magi, born in Tuscany, Italy, studied at the Nemo Academy of Digital Arts in Florence, where she met inspiring artists like Tomm Moore from Cartoon Saloon. Now a professional children's book illustrator, she collaborates with major Italian publishers and has been featured in competitions such as the Livio Sossi Prize. In 2024, she was proud to have won third place in NASA's "Moon to Mars" architecture art challenge.
