

Individual Diverse Global Distinct
Artists who champion good causes

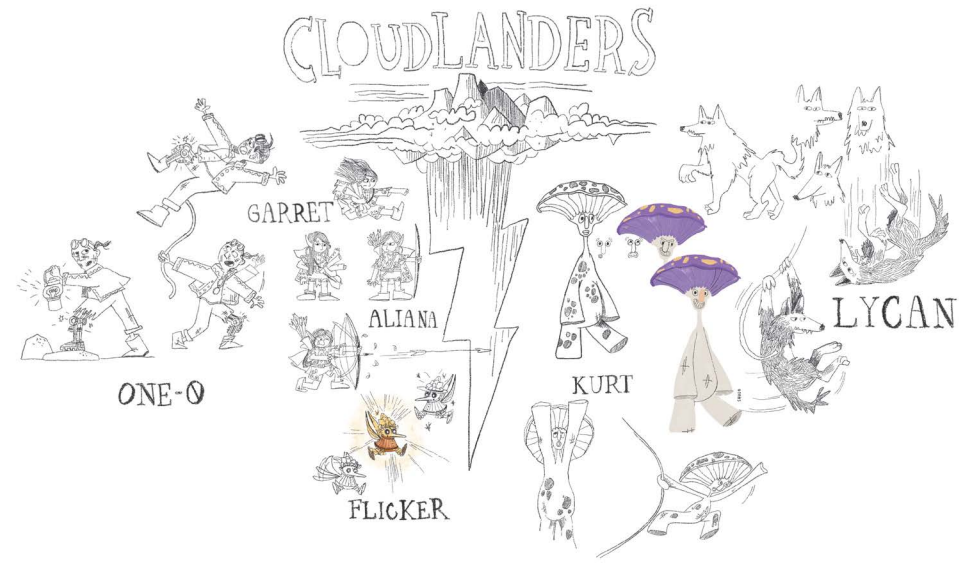

Saulo Santana Cabrera is a multidisciplinary artist and designer. He lives in the countryside of the Canary Islands together with his greyhound surrounded by trees, plants, birds, and bugs which he loves observing from his studio. Since childhood, he has been drawn to drawing. Some memories include painting horses and abstract shapes with his parents. After finishing his Design studies, he began a career in the creative industry, working with brands and talents worldwide in the field of furniture design. Over the years, he regained his interest in Visual Arts leading to new collaborations and illustration projects. Currently immersed in children's illustration projects, Saulo guides his creativity using warm color palettes, to infuse his works with playfulness and storytelling. His aesthetic resonates across digital and traditional mediums. This duality empowers him to craft captivating visual experiences that bridge tradition while also fostering sustainability and innovation.

saulo santana cabrera

Artists who champion good causes. We work with major progressive brands to communicate their message and align our mutual values by connecting them with diverse, genuine and individual talent.

The unlikely story of the
CANARY and the WILD DOG

